General

- For over eleven years, Ian Schwartz has enjoyed representing both buyers and sellers as a Licensed Broker Associate in Coldwell Banker's Lincoln Park Plaza office, the top producing Coldwell Banker office in the United States.
 - In each of the past six years, Ian has been the number one agent in Resale Sales Volume in the Lincoln Park Plaza office, averaging over thirty million dollars in sales per year.
 - Ian grew up in Evanston and currently resides in Lincoln Park with his wife Susan, their twelve-year-old daughter Emily, their nine-year-old daughter Sydney and their six-year-old son Justin.
 - After graduating from Evanston Township High School, Ian attended Oberlin College in Oberlin, Ohio, where he was a timpanist and percussionist with the Oberlin Symphonic Band and a member of the varsity tennis team. He then attended Northwestern University and graduated with Distinction and Honors in Psychology.
 - After graduation, he was employed as a Senior Analyst in a marketing consulting firm in Evanston. He then attended the Northwestern University School of Law, where he was active in the legal clinic and was a Note and Comment Editor of the Northwestern Journal of International Law & Business.
 - After graduating from law school, Ian clerked for a Federal District Court judge and then practiced law in Chicago for over five years, first at Sonnenschein Nath & Rosenthal and later at Segal McCambridge Singer & Mahoney, Ltd.
 - Ian's legal, marketing and consulting background, combined with his outgoing personality, his good sense of humor and his integrity, professionalism and dedication, has led to his success as a Licensed Broker Associate. He prides himself in his ability to listen and interpret the needs and wants of both buyers and sellers, and enjoys giving them conscientious service and winning their trust, loyalty and friendship.
