Surrounded by sparkling lake and treetop vistas this idyllic 27 plus acre estate is contiguous to and once part of the fabled, Great Estate, Dunellen Hall. The property is nestled in the Round Hill landscape, a glorious area revered for its sporting traditions including horseback riding, hunting, fishing and swimming. The park-like compound features a six bedroom main residence, guest house overlooking the tennis court, four bedroom cottage, three car attached garage and three car detached garage with apartment. This is a retreat where basking in privacy and astounding natural beauty can be enjoyed to its fullest, all within sixty minutes of Manhattan. An extraordinary offering, this is one of the last large tracts of land of its kind to be found in Greenwich and must be seen to be appreciated.
