What makes Door County a special place for you and your family? The chances are good that you've visited the county for years, perhaps decades. You may already be a 2nd or even 3rd generation visitor or already own a Door County home or vacation condominium. So, why is it that the peninsula calls you back every year? For some it's the quaint villages, great galleries, and unique shops. For others it's the golf, & green spaces. For many it's the water. Big water. Ever changing water - sometimes gentle, soothing - other times, stern and demanding. This exceptional listing offers you 226' of shore with a wonderful sand beach. A 483' pier and deep water, offering the finest private boating facility in the county. A splendid, vintage cottage, continually offering the rural elegance it achieved in the 1930s. And a convenient Egg Harbor location, just walking distance from shops, galleries, & restaurants; easy access to golf and parks; and exceptional privacy.
